~~Stock Screener: Phil Town Rule #1 Investing Strategy ...~~

Yesterday, I posted a discussion of several interesting aspects of Phil Town's book Rule #1. One of these points was Phil's requirement that any stock you invest in have a Margin of Safety. To determine this margin, Phil offers up a formula that calculates a stock's "sticker price," which can be calculated by retrieving some data on a company from any financial site.

The Rule #1 Blog is author Phil Town's personal site where he answers questions and provides additional insight. I like the fact that Town makes himself publically available. This, too, makes me less inclined to classify this as a "get rich quick" scheme. A review of the book at Fat Pitch Financials also seems ambivalent about the system.
